For years he has labored and fought to preserve the ideals of this institution, cheerfully meeting discouragement and difficulty with his ready smile. Urged by his motto, "Give to the world the best that you can" he has given to us his best efforts, upholding his conception of school life, ever pleading for a lofty standard of manhood and womanhood. His loyalty to the school, his willingness to share our joys and sorrows likewise defeats and triumphs, and his service for our continued advancement, all combine to awaken in us, the Senior Classes of 1940, this tribute to our principal,

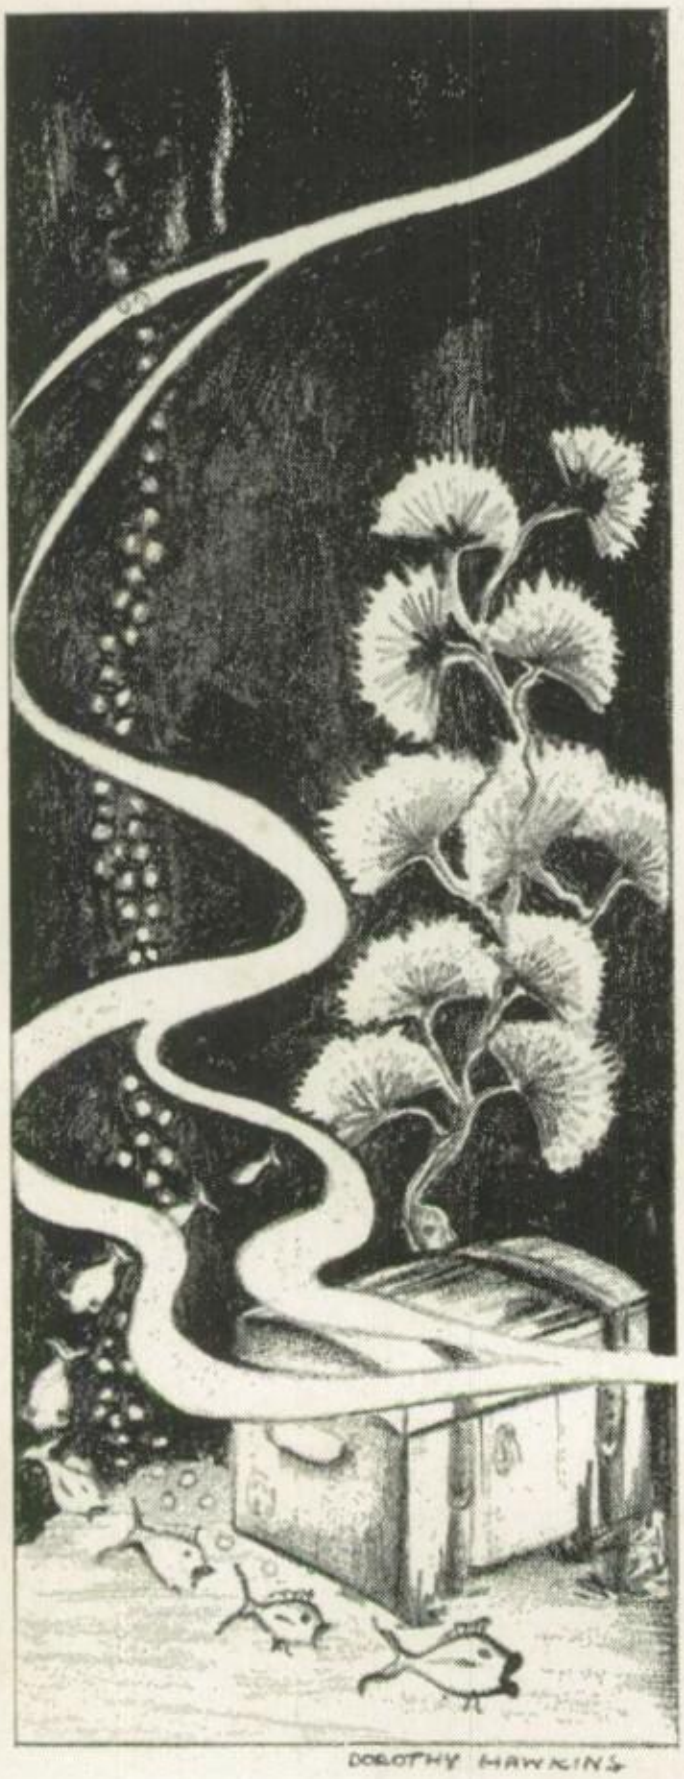
Dedication

As a recognition of their willingness and of their ability to serve the students individually and collectively, and of their wise counsel which has proved indispensable in our decisions, gratefully and affectionately we dedicate this volume of the Oak to our Senior sponsors.



Foreword

That, when you read these pages, there may be in your hearts the happy recollections of school days, that the images of faces and of scenes contained herein may bring pleasure and loving remembrance of them, we, the Senior classes of 1940, have made this record and present it to you, our school fellows, hoping you will find it an acceptable tribute to you and to Adamson.

In Memoriam

MISS MARY MORRISON

Instructor of Physical Education
Died October 19, 1939

"Chief of all her wonderous works,
Supreme of all her plan,
She has put an upward reach,
Within the heart of man."

Miss Mary Morrison, former gymnastic instructor of this school will long be remembered by those who have known and worked with her. She was noble, and sympathetic, with winning ways which spread sunshine wherever she went. Her abilities as a leader and untiring worker were exhibited by her patience with the Pep Squad and Gymkhana, whose tasks she met in a sweet and gentle way. She was truly an ever-ready teacher—ready to laugh, to love, or to live, and there could never be another, although there should be millions. She sacrificed joys and pleasures which she cherished in an effort to serve those who needed her, and she was richly compensated with rewards of gratitude.

As a last tribute to the one whom we all so dearly loved let us, as she did, remember this:

"There is a destiny that makes us brothers;
None goes his way alone;
All that we send into the lives of other
Comes back into our own."

Best Manuscript Portrays Thoughts of Man and Beast on Fingernails

Wayne Horn's winning essay, "Fingernails," in the Interscholastic League contest, proves that some like them short, some like them long, and even the jungle beast takes an interest in his nails.

This was the winning essay in the school. The complete essay follows:

FINGERNAILS

It seems to be the custom of the present species of human beings to adorn the tips of their several digits with a horn-like substance, known collectively as fingernails. The purpose in this is quite puzzling, and although scientists seem to impress us with the idea of protecting the nerves upon the tips of our fingers, it is quite obvious that many timid ones are known as not to have any nerve. Regardless of this fact, these people also have fingernails.

What, then, is the true mission of fingernails? Perhaps that is one of the many interrogatory statements we mortals ask; yet we are not answered. It is thus that, to satisfy our own gross queries, we produce our various conclusions.

The human male is, as he believes, punished by fingernails because of the ignoble actions of past fellows. One asks, "How is he punished?" Man has no peace in life, continually tormented by the duty of amputating the ends of these annoying growths and extracting the amount of excess filth from beneath them. His is the sorry lot!

The female animal of the human race is blessed with those pretty little coral shells. What a wonderful time she has preparing those dainty blossoms, in gay-expectation of some clumsy comment from her foolish mate. Toiling over her miniature workbench, that is, the dresser, she carefully daubs a tiny brush and smears the nail with paint, making a grotesque upheaval of the dresser; nevertheless, hers is the happy lot!—

Then we arrive at the manicurist. Day by day, she cleans and polishes. Cutting nails and cuticles, she lives from one day to the next in dread anticipation of having some uncouth male with greasy fingers apply to her for treatment. Yet there is the joyful expectation of conversing, across the table, with some noted society matron. Ah, the manicurist's lot is a happier one, for fingernails pay her.

At last, we consider, not the human, but the beast. His fingernails are sometimes rudely regarded, by those with a species that he suffers greatly from such ridicule, but it was an act of providence that intended not for his ears such insults.

The jungle inmates live blissfully unaware of the moronic beliefs of man. His life is filled with using his "claws." With them he lives. Tearing and scratching with his fingernails, he survives. Skillfully rending his portion of the kill from the vanquished, he nourishes himself. Poor man that knows not the way of the lower animals! Intelligent carnivore, his is the happier lot!

The primary purpose of the high school paper is to reflect the activities of the students. It strives to cover all important happenings and in that way acquaint everyone with the resources of the school. It hopes to arouse interest in school projects, such as assemblies, senior plays, and contests of all kinds. Through its humor columns and its features the school paper serves as an entertainer of the student readers.

Scholarship Club

The Scholarship Club is the largest club in Adamson High School. Membership is open to pupils of all classifications who have the required scholastic standing. It is interesting to note that the two outstanding jewelry companies of Dallas, Linz Brothers and Arthur A. Everts, think so highly of scholarship that each year they provide thousands of pins to the members of the scholarship clubs of the city. The sponsors are Miss Helen Aduddell and Miss Berta Cooper.

LIFE BEGINS AT SIXTEEN

Paul and Frannie Hollis aided by their club, "The Secret Seven," attempt to modernize the Hollis Shoe Store while their parents are in Havana. They also attempt to prove that Crandal Smythe, a suitor of their sister Marjorie, is a racketeer, but both of their plans are wrecked when Mr. and Mrs. Hollis return unexpectedly. During the ball which the Secret Seven gives, Crandal Smythe is proved to be an imposter. Marjorie returns to her lover George Gordon, and Paul is made a hero.

LITTLE GERALDINE

The story of "Little Geraldine" shows the ups and downs and awkward situations which little Geraldine, daughter of a prominent alumnae of a co-ed college, has to face when she enters her mother's alma mater. Mamma has arranged beforehand to have her "precious" belong to her own sorority, but Geraldine is put through all the horse-play to which Freshmen are subjected. Reared and educated abroad, according to the out-of-date standards of her mother's girlhood, Geraldine has an education in store for her—a liberal education. The fast moving plot shows how Geraldine, with the help of an attractive young man, foils the plot of the rival school to kidnap the star football player.

The International Peace Forum grew out of the study of a special unit on International Relationship and World Peace taken up by the classes in History 8 and History 4 in the fall of '37. The purpose of the group is to study problems of national importance since most of these are related either directly or indirectly to that of World Peace. The programs consist of debates, panel discussions, and special reports, always followed by a spirited discussion by the members. The motto could well be stated as, "Learn the facts and do your part as a citizen," or "It is not for us to judge, but to understand."

MAIN CHARACTERS

Marie, Princess Rozenia—called Magazine Princess . . . . . June Griffith
Michael St. Denis—graduate of Hargis, now in Secret Service . Vernon Barnett
Herbert Hargis—student . . . . . Charles Parr
Betty—freshman at Hargis . . . . . Wanda Binion

A group of college students have gathered at the seashore home of Miss Stewart, professor of English in the Hargis co-educational University, to be entertained and to practice up on their athletics. Eagerly they greet Michael, who is a graduate of Hargis and a former tennis champion. Michael recognizes Marie, a runaway princess from the fictitious country of Rosenia, and after hearing her story agrees to help her. With the help of Julia, a co-ed at Hargis, and also the daughter of the governor, Michael succeeds in capturing Red Rosie, a pirate, sent by the King of Rosenia to capture Marie. All are happy over Marie's freedom and again the college celebration is resumed amid enthusiastic cheers and singing for Hargis.

Football Calendar

September 22. Adamson 0—Longview 2

The Leopards journeyed to Longview for their first game of the season and went down in defeat by the "baseball" score of 2 to 0. The Leopards outplayed their opponents throughout the game and deserved a victory.

September 30. Adamson 33—Graham 0

In their second game the Leopards really hit their stride. Adamson scored twice in the first quarter, once in the second, and once in the third and fourth quarters, also. Graham was never able to make a sustained drive during the course of the game.

October 6. Adamson 20—John Reagan (Houston) 6

Playing their first game in the new Dal-Hi Stadium, Adamson beat a powerful team in John Reagan of Houston. Reagan was the favorite, but the Leopard's speed proved too much for the Reaganites to handle.

October 12. Adamson 21—Tech 0

Opening the district race against Tech Hi, the Leopards proved from the start that they were going to be serious contenders for the city championship. Adamson did all its scoring during the first half. Tech threatened the Leopard goal several times, but could never push over a score.

Football Calendar

October 20. Adamson 33—Forest 6

The Leopards turned in a great game against the heavier Forest team. Speed again was an important factor in the victory. The Leopards scored once in the first quarter, once in the third and three times in the last.

November 10. Adamson 6—Woodrow Wilson 20

Adamson lost its only district game to Woodrow Wilson, the team that eventually won the city title. The Leopards entered the game with a bad case of jitters and never settled down until late in the game. The Wildcats scored in the first, second and third quarters while the Leopard's only tally came in the last quarter.

November 23. Adamson 14—North Dallas 12

The North Dallas game was one of the most exciting of the season. Trailing by two touchdowns at the half, the Leopards played the most courageous game of the season as they came from behind to win. The last score came in the last minute of the game.

November 30. Adamson 18—Sunset 13

Adamson won its last game of the season over their neighborhood rivals, the Sunset Bisons. The game was played in a dense fog and at times the spectators could not see the play on the field. The Leopards scored in the first, third and last quarters while the Bisons pushed across their touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters.

Jokes

At school for the first time, the small boy started to sob bitterly.

"What's the matter, Willie?" Asked the teacher.

"Please, Miss. I don't like school, and I've got to stay here till I'm 14."

"Don't worry about that," said the teacher. "Look at me. I've got to stay here till I'm 65!"

Teacher: "Johnny, tell me what you know about the Caucasian race."

Johnny: "I don't know anything about it. I didn't see it."

First Student: "What? You flunked that course again?"

Second Student: "What do you expect? They gave me the same exam."

Freshman: "Some upper classman was just telling me that we are to have a new concrete stadium next fall."

Sophomore: "Yes the alumni have at last decided to use their heads."

"How long does an engine last?" asked the inquisitive old lady of the locomotive engineer.

"About thirty years," he answered patiently.

"Oh, I should think a tough-looking thing like that would last much longer than thirty years."

"Maybe it would if it didn't smoke so much."

Teacher: "You missed my class yesterday, didn't you?"

Frank: "Not in the least, teacher, not in the least."

"I thought you said you were going to knock that exam cold."

"Well, didn't I? I came out with a zero."

"And what," she asked, "should a little boy say to the lady who has given him a penny for carrying her bundles?"

"I'd hate to tell you," he replied.

Jerry: "Dora is the dullest girl I've ever seen."

Perry: "Why?"

Jerry: "She wanted to know how many quarters in a baseball game."

Perry: "That's nothing. My girl wanted to know if a football coach has wheels."

PHONETICALLY RIGHT, ANYWAY

Doctor (after bringing victim to): "How did you happen to take that poison? Didn't you read the sign on the bottle? It said 'poison.' "

Ebenezer: "Yassah, but Ah didn't pay no attention!"

Doctor: "Why not,"

Ebenezer: "'Cause right underneaf dat it said, 'Lye'."

ENCIRCLING

Teacher: "What is it that binds us together, sustains, us, and makes us even better than nature intended?"

Tommy: "Girdles."

CAUGHT!

Moe was trying to describe to his friend the kind of fish he had caught. "I tell you," he explained, "it was that long! I never saw such a fish in my life!"

"I believe you," answered his friend.

THE BRUSH SAGA

Clarence Brush was a traveling man who sailed the foamy main,
He was Mister Brush in England, Senor
Brush in Spain.
In France he was Monsieur Brush; but the Germans were his bane,
They always called him Herr Brush, which filled his heart with pain.

BON MOW!

A man went wearily into a barber shop and slumped down into a chair.

"Give me a haircut," he said.

The barber told him that he was too far down in the chair for a haircut.

"All right," said the customer, wearily, "give me a shave."
